Team biography:

Ian Burgess

Non-Executive Investor Director

Ian co-founded Warwick Capital Partners with Alfredo Mattera in 2010. Since then they have built it into a successful multi fund business.

Ian has worked in the investment industry for over 30 years, in senior roles at a number of financial services institutions including Polygon, MatlinPatterson and CSFB proprietary special situations group. Investing in European credit markets since 1995, Ian has completed many successful investments in all major European jurisdictions.

His experience spans credit strategy, corporate strategy, investment banking as well as management consulting.

Ian holds a Master's degree in History from the University of Cambridge and is a Chartered Accountant.
